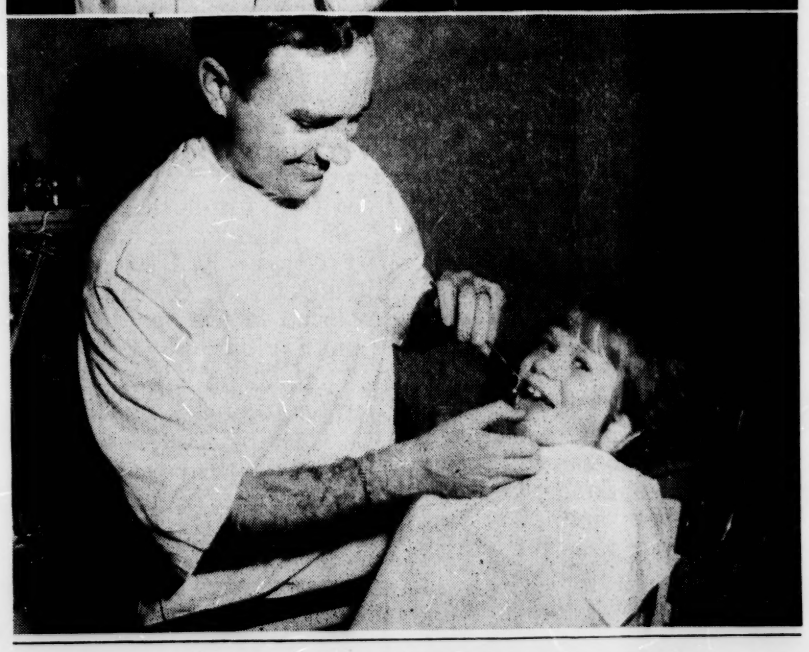
Dentists Visit Campus

The dentists gathered on the campus for a supper meeting and a review of the Dental Program which they have had in progress for several years. Members of the executive committee, Dr. Ralph Coffey of Morganton, chairman, Dr. Sam Steelman of Lincolnton, and Dr. Frank Kirk of Salisbury, review the progress made in the care of the children's teeth and the work of Dr. William S. Kirk who had been working for two days a week on the campus. The summary showed that whereas 175 permanent teeth were lost in 1951, the year before the program began, only five were lost in 1956 and four of these were for orthodontic purposes.

Two rooms in the infirmary have been thoroughly equipped for up to date operations. Gifts from the Presbyterian dentists within the State and the special gifts from the members of the committee have been responsible for providing this equipment. In addition to the services of Dr. William S. Kirk, Dr. H. V. Davenport is making regular visits to the campus and has the children who especially need orthodontia, under his care. This program begun voluntarily by the dentists has been carried through successfully and the results accomplished have been amazing.



The Citizenship Club Of The Seventh Grade

This is the Citizenship Club reporter of the Seventh Grade bringing you the news of today about the citizens of tomorrow. On January 23, 1957, the Seventh Grade organized a Citizenship Club. On that day we elected the following officers:

President, Ellen Neill

Vice President, Douglas Finley

Secretary and Treasurer, Charles Donaldson

Reporter, Hugh Pinkston

We also adopted a motto which is "I shall strive to be a better citizen in my home, school, community and nation." The club members decided to have our meetings on each Monday morning at nine o'clock.

At our second meeting we had talks on "Being a Good Sport," and "Manners at School." We have also seen some film strips that should help all of us to be better citizens.

You will be hearing from us again about the news of today from the citizens of tomorrow.

Southeastern Conferences Holds Annual Meeting

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Southeastern Conference of Workers in Homes for Children is scheduled for March 26th, 27th, and 28th, in Asheville, N. C. Representatives from North and South Carolina, Georgia, and the neighboring states will come together for the three-day session.

Reverend E. Leon Smith of the Methodist Children's Home in Virginia will open the conference with the president's address. The Assistant Executive Director of the Child Welfare League of America, Miss Helen R. Hagan, will lead the Institute on "Values of Group Living for Children."

Mr. Alton M. Broten, of the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina, will speak to the group on the Housemother's Training Program. One of the highlights of the Conference will be the address on Wednesday evening by Mr. D. Hiden Ramsey.

The Secretary-Treasurer of the Conference, Miss Mary Bruce Roberts, urges all those attending to make their reservations in Asheville.

TORNADO QUINTET LANDS THIRD PLACE IN TOURNAMENT

The boys' basketball team, coached by A. M. Calhoun, turned in a very fine regular season performance. A nip and tuck battle was waged throughout the eight weeks with Asheboro for top honors in the Conference. The Tornadoes went into the final game of the season with Spencer tied with Asheboro for first place. In this contest a defeat not only lost the chance at being co-champions but dropped them to third place by reason of Thomasville's high percentage based on fewer games played.

All who have seen the team in action commend Coach Calhoun and his squad for the excellent standing. The team has no particular height and is not fortified with extra strength on the bench. There have been four seniors in the starting line-up and the inexperience of the other men caused the starting five to carry the heavy load throughout the season. With just a little more luck on their side, these Tornadoes would have accomplished that which looked like impossible in becoming the champions of the North Piedmont Conference. It may be that they can yet surprise some more folks in the tournament which gets underway as this paper goes to press.

BARIUM BOWS IN NORTH PIEDMONT TOURNEY FINALS

By JERRY JOSEY, Record & Landmark Sports Editor

CONCORD—Barium Springs' Tornadoes, who dropped down late in the season in the North Piedmont Conference race, almost picked up the Piedmont Tournament championship here last night.

Only a sharp-shooting Kannapolis guard by the name of Eldon Petrea stood in their way.

And he proved quite an obstacle. Barium had fought Kannapolis all the way and rolled into a nine-point lead late in the third quarter, looking like the eventual tournament champion.

Then Petrea cut loose. The Kannapolis ace had only six points until he got hot at what proved to be a crucial time for the Tornadoes as Petrea led a 65-57 win.

Petrea hit 14 of Kannapolis' 27 points in their fourth quarter comeback that netted them the victory. Hitting on set shots and jumps from the outside, Petrea had four field goals and six foul shots to break the backbone of the Tornadoes' bid for the title.

Kannapolis was favored to win the tournament. Barium played one of their best games of the season before dropping the tussle.

Barium could be compared to a boxer last night. Three times the Tornadoes were down by six points or better, but fought back to either tie it up or recapture a lead. It's a known fact that three strikes and you're out. Barium had the third strike last night and they were definitely out after the third comeback rally.

Barium controlled the first period for the first four minutes. Holding a 7-4 lead, Kannapolis took over on two foul shots by Jerry Moss and Billy Cannon and moved into a 14-9 lead on goals by Jerry Poteat, Moss and Buddy Huggins.

Kannapolis held an 18-12 lead in the second when Barium fought back. A driving layup by LeNair Burns, a jump shot by Walter Plyler and another Burns' drive knoted it at 18-18 with 2:35 in the half. Cannon hit a jump shot and Plyler sank two foul shots for 20-20 with 2:11 remaining before Poteat

FROM LITTLE JOE'S CHURCH

REV. ROBERT R. COLLINS, Minister

Recently I was talking with a minister who was visiting our church and campus. He asked me this question: "How do you preach to a congregation such as yours which is composed largely of children and young people?" I assured him that this had given me much cause for concern nearly three years ago when I was considering the call to Little Joe's Church. Since that time I have come to several conclusions which guide me in my preaching. They are, at least in part, my answer to this question.

In the first place the needs of children and youth are basically the same as those of older persons. They need to know of a Father in heaven who loves them, and of His Son who said, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." They need the assurance that God is merciful and forgiving and that He watches over them with providential care. Like all people they need to be challenged to grow in the likeness of Jesus Christ, to discover His purpose for their lives and seek to do His will in every relationship in life.

But beyond these needs, I have found that the response of youth is far greater than I had ever realized. The average layman and minister I believe thinks that a child gains little from the Sunday morning message. Yet, my most attentive worshippers are usually young boys and girls. And weeks after I have spoken about a certain matter from the pulpit these young folks will remind me of it in a discussion at Pioneer or Senior High Fellowship. Unlike many adults, they come to church receptive and ready to take part in the hour of worship. Not only is the response shown in attentiveness, but in questions asked and the desire to do something about a particular project or need that has been mentioned in a sermon. The enthusiasm of youth is a reality in Little Joe's Church.

Having said this, let me close with a final observation. The receptive mind, the attentive spirit, the enthusiastic desire to do something about one's faith, which are characteristic of our Christian youth have caused me much concern. For I have realized more than ever before that day by day and week by week we who are Under The Steeple are molding permanently and surely the mind, character and Christian vision of these young people. They know only the Christ we live and preach, how imperative that we know Him fully and present Him fairly! Our Christian vision is theirs, how urgent that we escape the prejudices that are so foreign to our Lord's way of life! The character of each adult in our church stands out as an example to them, so we must strive with His help to be among "the pure in heart."

In brief, the Christian life of the boys and girls who worship in Little Joe's Church is but a reflection of what we give to them week after week. How necessary it is that we know Him well, whom to know aright is life eternal. How important that each of you undergird our ministry with unceasing prayer.

NEWS FROM THE COTTAGES

Howard Cottage

Hi There,

We have had a good time this month. First of all, we had Joyce Ann's birthday party and played a lot of games. Then we had a Valentine party and danced and played records. Miss Sims' sister, Ruth, was here for that, and we tried to teach her how to dance. The next night the Pioneers had a party and we went on a scavenger hunt and ran practically all the way.

On Thursday night three of the girls went to hear the North Carolina Symphony in Statesville and they enjoyed it very much. The next night the dining-room girls went to "The Grand Ole Opry" which was real good.

Sue is having a birthday on the twenty-fifth and we can hardly wait to give her her spanking. Miss Sims is going to be away this next week-end, and while we will enjoy having Mrs. Templeton with us, we will be glad when Miss Sims gets back. We are getting ready for our Glee Club and Voice Recital Program in high school. In the Elementary School the sixth and seventh grades are planning a program and we believe that it is going to be good.

Miss Bell caused a lot of excitement on Valentine morning because of something sparkling on her finger. Wonder what it could be? I'll bet we can guess.

Sunday night there was a little excitement in Barbara's room—we never heard such screaming, so we all ran to her rescue and there in the middle of her bed sat Barbara with "real big eyes," all because she saw an innocent little mouse in her locker. With radiator brushes and brooms we tried to kill the "Terrible Dragon," but the result of this trial was "The Mouse could not be found."

The Bean Stringers

The Bee Tree

Hi!

The Bee Tree is still humming—watch out, or the early spring time bees will sting you! What with the mixup of stinging bees and girl Bees, we have a time around here, but it is a happy time.

Libby Gregory had a birthday on Sunday, February 24th, and her clothing people visited her and gave her a supper party. Besides all the good things at the party they gave her a cake which she shared with all of us in the cottage. When any girl has a birthday, she sits in the seat of honor while all the other girls give her their happy birthday wishes.

You should have been with us at our Valentine party. We stirred the Cool Aid good and hard and pop! went the glass jar, spilling a gallon of Cool Aid all over our playroom floor. Little Bees mopped and washed and got it clean, and they had as good a party as if there had never been an accident.

Most of our girls will get to sing the hymn of the month, "O Sing a Song of Bethlehem" with the Girls' Choir and the regular choir on Sunday, March 3rd. This is a great experience for us and our first and second grade girls look forward to the time when they can sing in the choir, too.

We are holding our breath for report cards on Thursday. Every little Bee hopes for the honor roll. Some of us may not make it, but we hope we have made some improvement.

Love to all of you.

Lottie Walker, 2nd Floor

Hello Everyone,

Here we are again with our news. We only have one birthday in March, which is Wilson Bush. February 28 we will get our report cards and I think more of us will make the honor roll this time. The seventh grade is going to have a chapel program before long. I know it is going to be good. Today Darrel Hicks came to our cottage with posters that has The Lord's Prayer, The Ten Commandments, The 23rd Psalm and other writings on them. Eight of us bought one and hung them on the walls in our rooms.

All of us that read the newspaper were very sorry to hear about Mount Airy school building burning February 22. We are sorry for the parents of nine year old Larry Adams who burned to death. Larry was crippled from his birth. The fifth grade teacher, Miss Sadie Brandon, is engaged to Mr. Charles E. Hiatt, of Pilot Mountain, N. C. She will be married in the spring at Barium Springs, N. C.

That about winds up our news until next month. See you then.

Ronald Brown and the boys of Lottie Walker second floor.

Miss Ford's Cottage

Hi,

I guess you think it is about time you heard from us. Well, we finally got our sixth grade boys working. Stanley and Dempsey are working at the carpenter shop. Tommy and Jerome are at the Infirmary. Mike is the only one who is not working away from the cottage. He hopes he will get a job soon (Miss Ford does too).

I think everybody in our cottage is "basketball crazy." We think that since our varsity boys have been doing so well we have to practice too, so we can "fill their shoes" when we get big.

Well, that is about all the news for now, but you will hear from us next month.

DUKE ENDOWMENT YEAR BOOK GIVES SUMMARY

The Duke Endowment each year receives reports from the child-caring institutions in North and South Carolina. These reports are then summarized and included in the annual report which is published in its Year Book. The following is the report by the Director on the Orphanage Section:

The Trustees of The Duke Endowment assisted the child-caring institutions in the Carolinas with their operating expenses for the thirty-first consecutive year in 1955 when 39 child-caring institutions were assisted, 27 in North Carolina and 12 in South Carolina. The name of the Methodist Orphanage, Raleigh, North Carolina, was changed to the Methodist Home for Children.

Bed Capacity of the 39 institutions was 5,499 on December 31, 1955 and a daily average of 4,672 children were cared for during the year.

Children Cared For numbered 5,913 for the year 1955, with 3,090 of this number, or 52.3 per cent, being either full or half orphan children, while 2,823, or 47.7 per cent, were children with both parents living. The number of full orphan children cared for during the year was 443, 7.5 per cent of the total. Divided by age groups it was found that 3,119, or 52.7 per cent, were over 12 years of age; 2,565, or 43.4 per cent, were between six and 12 years; and 229, or 3.9 per cent, were under six years of age. There were 3,081 boys and 2,832 girls cared for during the year 1955.

Admissions totaled 1,187 during the year and of this number 1,115 were new admissions and 72 readmissions. There was a decrease of 24, or 2.0 per cent, in the number of admissions in 1955 as compared with 1954.

Discharges numbered 1,279 during 1955, an increase of 60, or 4.9 per cent, over the 1954 number. On December 31, 1955 the 39 assisted institutions were caring for 4,634 children as compared with 4,728 reported by the same number of institutions on December 31, 1954.

Days of Care rendered by the 39 institutions during the year 1955 totaled 1,705,289, with 923,044, or 54.1 per cent, being days of care of orphan and half orphan children and 782,245, or 45.9 per cent, for children with both parents living. The institutional days of care showed a decrease of .9 per cent in 1955 as compared with 1954. Three institutions conducted foster home care programs under direct supervision and reported a total of 52,417 days of foster care rendered, of which number 16,887, or 32.2 per cent, were for orphan and half orphan children. These institutions were assisted by the Trustees of The Duke Endowment in the foster home care of orphan and half orphan children on the same basis as for care rendered in the institutions.

Employees numbered 1,011 at the 39 institutions in 1955 and based on the average number of children cared for per day, there was an average of one employee for every five children.

Schools. During the 1954-55 school term there was a total of 4,961 orphanage children enrolled in schools. Of this number, 2,639, or 53.2 per cent, were in schools maintained at the institutions and 2,322, or 46.8 per cent, attended public schools away from the institutions.

Mothers' Aid and Foster Home Care. During 1955, two institutions provided assistance to 42 mothers and 114 children in their homes. Three institutions provided foster home care on a direct service basis during the year for 200 children.

FINANCES

Plant Values and Investments. The plant investment reported by 39 assisted institutions on December 31, 1955 amounted to $23,477,187, and was divided as follows: land, $3,284,926; buildings, $16,430,974; equipment, $3,443,747; and livestock, $317,540. The average investment per child at the 39 institutions, based on the average number of children per day, was $5,025. Invested funds were held by 26 institutions on December 31, 1955 and amounted to $11,189,740.

Indebtedness on December 31, 1955, capital and operating, amounted to $721,161, which was a decrease of $50,490, or 6.5 per cent, from the 1954 figures.

Operating Receipts at the assisted institutions increased $187,606, or 3.3 per cent, in 1955 over 1954 and totaled $5,818,264.

Operating Expenditures for the year 1955 totaled $5,209,861, an increase of $235,307, or 4.7 per cent, over the 1954 expenditures. The average cost per child per day, excluding extra-institutional services, for the year 1955 was $2.91, indicating an increase of $.09 or 3.2 per cent, over the 1954 figure. At the 39 institutions the average cost per child per year was $1,062.15, an increase of $32.85, or 3.2 per cent, over the 1954 figure. More detailed information on this subject may be found in the tabulations on pages 39, 40 and 41.

Capital Expenditures for the year 1955 totaled $2,164,827, a decrease of $1,204,637, or 35.8 per cent, from 1954.

The Duke Endowment assisted 39 institutions for the year 1955 covering the days of care rendered orphan and half orphan children in the amount of $253,516.58, including $4,554,73 for the care of orphan and half orphan children under institution supervision in foster homes. The Children's Home Society of North Carolina, Greensboro, North Carolina, is conducting a special program in placing older children for adoption in family homes and $5,000.00 was provided to assist this program during 1955. Including the Children's Home Society of North Carolina there were 28 institutions located in North Carolina assisted in the amount of $186,785.54, which with the $71,731.04 contributed to 12 institutions located in South Carolina makes a total of $258,516.58 contributed for the year 1955 to 40 institutions.

and Cannon sank goals and Petrea hit two foul shots for a 26-20 Kannapolis lead at halftime.

Barium's "Dub" Plyler got hot in the third period, sinking two goals and a foul shot, while Poteat hit from the foul line, to cut the Little Wonders margin down to 27-25. Ronnie Hudgins' two foul shots knotted it at 27-27 with 6:26 remaining. Buddy Huggins hit two straight goals for a 31-27 lead for Kannapolis before Burns drove in for a layup, Charles Ward dropped in a foul shot and Plyler hit a pair of goals to sprint Barium into a 34-31 lead.

With 2:40 remaining in the third, Barium hit a hot streak that pushed their lead from 36-34 into 43-34 with 1:46 on the clock on a goal and three foul shots by Plyler and two charity tosses by Hudgins.

Cannon and Petrea sank goals to cut it down to 43-38 at the end of the third period. Poteat's goal and foul shot to start the fourth was the beginning of the end for the Tornadoes, cutting the margin down to 43-41.

Lawton Rice's long push shot made it 53-50, before Wayne Hubbard stretched the lead back to five again with 2:30 left. A foul shot by Hudgins and Plyler's hook shot cut it down to 55-53 with 1:30 remaining.

Petrea hit two foul shots for a 62-53 Kannapolis lead with 45 seconds to go to wrap up the victory for the Little Wonders.
